RE: Letter of apology

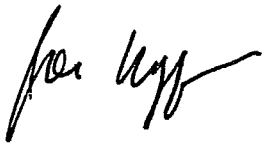

I am writing this to apologize to you Hon. State Senator Andrew Chesney.... I am very sorry for the emails I sent to your email address. I am ashamed of the way I expressed myself, and I regret it. My words that were written were inappropriate and hurtful, and you did not deserve to receive a message like that.

I understand that what I wrote may have caused you and your whole family fear, stress, or anger and for that I take full responsibility, I wish I could take it all back, but all I can do now is acknowledge that what I did was wrong and offer you and your entire family a sincere apology.

What I wrote was wrong and unfair to you. It does not show who I am or how I want to treat people, and I regret sending it.

Please know that this will never happen again. Thank you for reading this. I am genuinely sorry for my actions and putting you in this position.

Thank You,
